“RESOLUTION NO. 2022-311

A RESOLUTION EARNESTLY REQUESTING THE SCHOOL HEADS/PRINCIPALS IN THE DEPED SAN NICOLAS DISTRICT AND THE STA. ROSA ACADEMY TO ENCOURAGE THEIR STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE AND INVOLVE THEMSELVES IN THEIR RESPECTIVE BARANGAYS, IN THE DAMILI STREET DANCE COMPETITION IN CELEBRATION OF THE MUNICIPALITY'S DAMILI FESTIVAL.

WHEREAS, the Annual festivities of the Municipality of San Nicolas now dubbed as “Damili Festival” showcases the town’s identity, the various skills of its people depicting the historic tradition and culture of pottery making, which is still a way of life of the sturdy San Nicoleño;

WHEREAS, the damili industry was once neglected and nearly went into oblivion but earnest efforts of the previous administrations to relive and revive the industry bore fruits and changes in the trade making it now as a lucrative business as it expanded to brick and tile making and others;

WHEREAS, one of the highlights in the celebration of the festivities is the Damili Street dance competition, undoubtedly the most attended activity where the dancing skills to the tune of the Municipality’s folk song, “Agdamdamili Kami” are shown;

WHEREAS, participants to the competition come from every barangay, a contingent of mixed ages, engaged and selected by the concerned barangay most of whom are students coming from the various schools in the Local Government;

WHEREAS, to give due recognition to the efforts and sacrifices of students joining the activity, for them to continue participating in the said cultural activity, the schools may give these students additional points in their related subjects subject to school regulations and standards to enhance their respective marks and grades;
